

Hey, this is Dan Nordheim, host of the documentary podcast Life of the Record. Join me as I interview the artists, musicians and producers that were involved in the making of a classic album. Each episode tells the story of how one album came to be directly from the people who were there. You'll hear from artists like Spoon, Pixies, The Shins, Violent Femmes, Bonnie Prince Billy, Minor Threat, and Richard and Linda Thompson. The podcast includes in-depth interviews with the creators who offer surprising insights into each track on the record. With episodes covering albums across different eras, music scenes, and genres, Life of the Record has something unique to offer music fans. Subscribe to Life of the Record on your favorite podcast platform.